SECTION C: OPTIONAL FIELD TRIPS

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park – Mon. 6/10, Tue., 6/11

Departs Hawaii Naniloa: 12:45 pm Return to Hawaii Naniloa: 5:00 pm

Includes Field Interpreter and lunch.

Discover the awesome power of volcanic eruptions while visiting the most active volcano in the world. Sulfur banks, steam vents, lava flows, craters, lava tubes and an expert geologist add to this powerful experience. Please bring a light sweater or jacket and light rain gear. Weather changes may be indicated.

Those with heart or lung conditions must be aware of altitude, weather and air changes.

Rain Forest – Mon., 6/10, Tue., 6/11

Departs Hawaii Naniloa: 12:45 pm Return to Hawaii Naniloa: 5:00 pm

Includes Lunch and Field Interpreter.

Under a rain forest canopy, paths lead through stands of bamboos, ginger and enormous flowering trees to 420-foot Akaka Falls and the smaller Kahuna Falls. Includes a drive along the Onomea Scenic Route and time to wander the store fronts of historic Honomu.

Hilo Drilling Research Site – Wed., 6/12

Departs Hawaii Naniloa: 9:30 am Return to Hawaii Naniloa: 12 noon

Includes Field Interpreter.

Meet with the Center for Studies of Active Volcanoes Director Don Thomas and see first hand the deep-drilling project in action and the coring research happening in the very heart of Hilo.

Post Conference Historical/Cultural Field Excursion – Thu., 6/13 – Fri., 6/14

Hotel lodging included for Thu., 6/13 & Fri., 6/14

Rooms are based on double occupancy (single occupancy available for $35 more per room per night).

Day 1: Departs Hawaii Naniloa Hotel on Thu., 6/13 at 8:00 am Arrives in Kona: 4:30 pm

Includes Lunch and Field Interpreter.

Enjoy a leisure air-conditioned drive to the west side along the scenic Hamakua Coast. Marvel at the panoramic views overlooking Waipio Valley, once the training grounds for Kamehameha the Great and traditional taro farming community. Browse through cowboy country and dine in Waimea before meandering down the Kohala slopes to visit Puukohola Heiau, a historic stone temple dedicated to Kamehameha's family war god Kukailimoku.

Day 2: Departs the Royal Kona Resort on Fri., 6/14 at 8:00 am Return to Hotel: 4:30 pm

Includes Continental Breakfast, Lunch, Snack and Field Interpreter.

Dive into a unique ocean exploring adventure taking you to swim and snorkel in Kealahou Bay. Take pleasure in experiencing the dynamic ecosystem at one of the most pristine marine sanctuaries, home to a variety of tropical fish and coral reefs. Transition to a land-based guided tour through Pu'uohonua O Honaunau, City of Refuge, a tranquil seaside location where those who broke rules traditionally sought safety and sanctuary.
